NEW VIEWS!

Mr. Melvin Vaniman is now at the Volcano, where he hopes to get a photo which will do the subject justice. His wonderful photo of Honolulu, the largest direct photo ever taken in the islands, not to mention the smaller, but not less perfect pictures of the Paik, Waikiki Beach, etc., place him in the front rank of his profession. It is not unreasonable to expect equally good results from his present trip, which will include all points of interest between Honolulu and the Volcano.

When completed Messrs. King Bros., who are associated with Mr. Vaniman, will have a series of photos equal to anything made anywhere, and which will do more toward advertising the islands than any other medium.

DESTROYED BY THE KING Kalakaua Burned Certificate of Marriage.

NEW MOVE IN KAPIOLANI CASE

Motion for New Trial Is Filed Yesterday in Hagey Cure Case—Court Notes.

The Kapiolani Estate trial brought out sensational charges yesterday, in which the late King Kalakaua was involved. The defense of E. Peck & Co. rests upon the marriage of Okuu and Kahoopuipui, from whom they claim title to the land. The plaintiffs are trying to prove that there had been no marriage between these parties, and if this is done, the Kapiolani Estate will obtain the title to the land at Kapiolani which is said to be worth in the neighborhood of $25,000.

The vital point in the case has been the question of marriage between the parties named above, and this has been continually and relentlessly attacked by the attorneys for the plaintiff, during the whole course of the trial. The absence of documentary proof of this marriage on the part of the defendants has been the most vulnerable point, and this was explained away in a sensational manner yesterday. In brief, King Kalakaua was charged with having destroyed the marriage contract which is so badly wanted by the defendants, and two witnesses were put on the stand yesterday in proof of the fact.

John Poekuboa was the main witness to this charge. He testified that he was present at a conference between Okuu and King Kalakaua in the palace yard, that the former handed to the king some papers, and that the latter in a fit of anger tore the papers in three parts, and then ordered one of his attendants to burn them up. Another set of papers brought by one of the King's attendants appeared to be fixed in the witness's mind, and he was not positive upon cross examination as to which lot had been destroyed. This meeting he said took place under a tree, and he was some distance away. He heard Okuu say that the king had destroyed his marriage certificate. The witness testified that from what he had learned the parties had been married by the Bishop at Ewa. When asked if he had seen the marriage certificate at the time it was torn up by the angry king, he replied, that if his neck had been two fathoms long he might have been able to do so.

Another witness, a native woman, testified to the same effect. She said that the king had been very angry at the annoyances Okuu had caused him by demanding the return of his property, and that he was ill at the time this incident occurred.

There appears to be no question of the transfer of the property to King Kalakaua by Kahoopuipui, the wife of Okuu, but defendants claim that she had no right to make such conveyance, after her marriage.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL IN HAGEY CASE.

The motion for a new trial in the case of Harrison vs. Magoon, in which jury rendered a verdict for $12,000 for plaintiff, was filed yesterday. The motion is based on the usual grounds, including besides the ground of the disqualification of one of the jurors, affidavits from each of the defendants and attorneys accompany the motion, each reciting that he was unaware of the fact that Vincent Fernandez, one of the jurors, had taken the Hagey cure, up to the time the jury was sent out. The affidavit of Attorney McClanahan further alleges "That the formation of an opinion as to whether or not the Hagey gold treatment was a cure for alcoholism would, under the said evidence and rulings of said trial judge, be the formation of an opinion upon a material fact of said cause."

J. M. Vivas makes affidavit to the fact that he knows three men of the name of "V. Fernandez," and the juror of that name states that he did take the Hagey cure during the year 1897.

DEMURRER SUSTAINED.
Judge Gear sustained the demurrer yesterday in the case of Wm. F. Jones vs. Carl H. Patzig et al., a suit to foreclose mortgage for non-payment of a note of $4,200. The first ground of de-murrer is based upon the following:
"Misjoinder of parties in that defendant Caroline Patzig did not sign nor is she a party to the mortgage." The demurrer is sustained on this ground. The court holds "As the only possible result of this equitable action is against the defendant would be foreclosure, only those claiming under the mortgage would be affected by the action, and as to such the widow is not entitled to amend petition."

COURT NOTES.
A jury has been waived by plaintiff in the case of H. Hackfeld & Co. vs.
K. Ito. The case will be heard today.

THIN AND NERVOUS

HOW A ST. PAUL WOMAN SUFF-ERED AWFUL TORTURES.

She Was Afflicted With Rheumatism and Indigestion—Now She Gladly Tells Others How She Was Cured
From The Pioneer Press, St. Paul, Minn.

Anyone who has suffered from either rheumatism or indigestion can appreciate the condition of a frail woman whose body was racked by the agonies caused by a complication of these diseases. Such was the experience of Mrs.
J. T. Sloggy, of 107 East Jassamine street, St. Paul, Minn. Happily she found relief by taking the advice of a friend and now, moved by gratitude for her delivery, she tells others how she was cured. To a reporter she said:

"During the winter of 1898 I suffered very much with rheumatism, being confined to my bed some of the time under a physician's care and unable to do any work. I was also troubled with indigestion. When spring came I was thin and nervous, had a poor appetite and was broken down in health generally. That summer I made a visit to Wisconsin and while there met an old friend, Mrs. Ira Wilbur, of Big Springs.
She said she had been a great sufferer from indigestion and had been completely cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I knew her word could be relied on so I got a box of the pills and commenced taking them. I felt benefited in a few days but continued to take them for about five months.

"That winter I had no return of the rheumatism, my appetite improved and I gained in flesh and strength. My cure was permanent and I have not taken any of the pills since.

"I have told many how the pills helped me and I sincerely hope that others suffering in the same way may be induced to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

This statement was sworn to by Mrs.
Sloggy before G. E. Sampson, a notary public, at St. Paul. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People will not only cure rheumatism and indigestion but are also an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dancer, sciatica, neuralgia, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion, and all forms of weakness. At all dealers or direct from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., fifty cents per box; six boxes, two dollars and fifty cents.

default having been taken against defendant.

An order approving the final accounts and discharging the administratrix, Susan Kanaka, was made yesterday in the matter of the estate of S. L. Kanaka.

A motion was filed yesterday for the issuance of an attachment against the property of the defendant in the case of H. Hamano vs. K. Yamamura, suit for $954.51. It is charged that defendant is secreting his property or disposing of the same or colluding so to do, and that unless the attachment of this court issues against the property of this defendant, he will assign, dispose of or conceal his property with intent to defraud his creditors.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.
Henderson Grinnett, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, his wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—George R. McDonald, Main Logan county, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. Sold by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.
